Policy:

The Arizona Department of Administration is committed to the prohibition against unlawful discrimination, harassment and retaliation in the workplace. It is the policy of the Arizona Department of Administration (ADOA) that all ADOA employees shall comply with all federal and state anti-discrimination laws. ADOA and its employees shall not unlawfully discriminate against any individual with regard to the terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, pay, leave, insurance benefits, retention, and rehiring. All allegations of discrimination will be promptly investigated, and any employee who engages in conduct in violation of this policy may be disciplined or separated from state employment.

Equal Employment Opportunity. ADOA shall provide equal employment opportunity for all individuals regardless of race, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, genetic information, sex, pregnancy, military or veteran status, or any other status protected by federal law, state law, or regulation. It is the policy of ADOA that all individuals are treated in a fair and non-discriminatory manner throughout the application and employment process.

Harassment Prohibited. Harassment of a sexual nature or harassment based on race, color, national origin, religion, age, disability, genetic information, sex, pregnancy, military or veteran status, or any other status protected by federal law, state law, or regulation is prohibited. ADOA prohibits the unlawful harassment of any employee in the course of the employee's work by supervisors, coworkers, or third parties, such as vendors or customers. Any ADOA employee who engages in unlawful harassment may be disciplined or separated from state employment.

Protection from Retaliation. ADOA does not permit or tolerate retaliation against anyone for raising a concern about, assisting in an investigation of, or filing a complaint in good faith concerning unlawful discrimination or harassment. Any ADOA employee found to have engaged in retaliation against another individual for reporting or assisting in the investigation of any allegation of unlawful discrimination may be disciplined or separated from state employment.

It is responsibility of all ADOA employees to promptly bring any allegation of unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation to the attention of the Department. Any complaint alleging unlawful discrimination, harassment or retaliation must be submitted in accordance with the procedures described in this policy and not under ADOA's Employee Grievance Policy.

This policy does not affect other rights and remedies under federal and state statutes prohibiting employment discrimination. Employees who believe that they have been subjected to discrimination because of their race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy, age, national origin, genetic information or disability may also file charges of employment discrimination with the Arizona Attorney General's Civil Rights Division and with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Charges filed with the Arizona Civil Rights Division must be filed within 180 days following the most recent act of discrimination; charges filed with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission must be filed within 300 days following the most recent act of discrimination. The filing of an internal complaint of discrimination pursuant to this policy will not impact those statutes of limitations. No employee of this Department who elects to file a charge with either the Arizona Attorney General's Civil Rights Division or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, or who testifies in an investigation by either of those agencies, will be retaliated against or denied internal rights or remedies on account of that charge filing or testimony.

Matters Subject to the Complaint Procedure:

This procedure shall be used by an employee to file a complaint with the ADOA Complaint Coordinator within 180 days of the action giving rise to the complaint and to clearly outline the allegations to be addressed, including whether the basis of the complaint is based on:

1. Unlawful discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy), age, national origin, genetic information or on the basis of a disability.
2. Allegation of sexual harassment or other form of harassment.
3. Retaliation for filing a complaint.
4. Retaliation or intimidation for exercising any right under state or federal law.

Preparation

A complainant shall not be allowed the use of state time or state property to prepare a complaint, prepare for a meeting with agency management or to meet with a representative. Subject to supervisory approval and the operational needs of the unit, a complainant may request available compensatory or annual leave for this purpose.

Multiple complaints

Multiple complaints by an employee may be consolidated into a single complaint. Separate complaints filed by two or more employees regarding the same issue or issues may be consolidated into a group complaint. Employees having a common complaint may submit one group complaint, identifying one complainant as the selected spokesperson for the group. Employees who choose to file a group complaint are prohibited from filing separate complaints on the same issue.

Amendments

Once a complaint is submitted to the ADOA Complaint Coordinator, it may not be amended. If additional documentation is submitted by the complainant after the initiation of the complaint, the reviewing or investigating official may remand the complaint to the complainant for reconsideration and resubmission.
